SWELL EVENT IN COLORED CIRCLE

Supper and Dance Given Last Night Was a Success in Every Particular

MANY MEATS ARE SERVED

Turkey, Possum, Coon, Duck,
Rabbit, Goose and Chicken
Were on the Menu

One of the biggest and likewise the most successful social events of the season in colored circles was the supper and dance given in the Ypsilanti hall last night under the auspices of the Colored Odd Fellows.

Allen Daniels was "charge de affaires" and had his hands full handling the large crowd present.

Supper was served from five to ten o'clock, and over two hundred partook of the spread.

And the meal they served—it would tempt the gods. Besides all the trimmings and side dishes, the following meats were served: Possum, coon, goose, turkey, chicken, rabbit and duck.

After the banqueting tables were cleared away, the younger set danced until a late hour. Music was furnished by the Patsy O'Rear orchestra. About fifty from Connersville were in attendance; ten from Shelbyville, and every surrounding city was represented.

A novel scheme was employed in raising funds. As many as wanted them were supplied with small tin buckets and in these they took a collection. To create interest, prizes were offered to the one receiving the largest amount. In this contest, Miss Mary Miller, who collected over $13 received the first prize—a gold watch; Miss Ethel M. Buckner, second—a gold ring, and Miss Minnie Johnson, third, a silk umbrella.

A guessing contest on the number of beans in a bag added a deal of pleasure to the evening's entertainment, and Delaney Bradford carried away the first prize of one dollar for guessing the nearest to the amount of "beans in the bag."

Many of the colored folks' white friends and neighbors attended the entertainment.

The lodge cleared $77.83 on the affair, and this will go into their endowment fund.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS IN SESSION TODAY

The county commissioners held the last meeting of the year of 1906 today, and allowed a number of claims.

They awarded the city corporation a contract for water and electric light for the ensuing year; contract price, $750 for water and $250 for light. The contract for fuel was closed with William Dagler for a consideration of $1100.

W. A. Allen and Seth Moore were appointed appraisers for granting school fund loans on property. These positions were made vacant by the death of Alfred Duke and the removal of O. C. Brann to Greenfield.

CHURCH NEWS

The auxiliary to the C. W. B. M. will meet with Mrs. Sarah Guffin on North Morgan street, Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 2d.

At the last quarterly conference held at Milroy the preacher's salary was increased $25, making a salary of $825 annually.

Miss Lottie Vanosdal spent Xmas with her aunt, Mrs. O. C. Patton.

Prof. Thomas Nadal, of Olivet, Mich., spent Xmas with his relatives at Milroy.

AT INDIANAPOLIS

Methodists May Hold Great National Meeting in 1908 at the Indiana Capital

The Methodists of this city will read with some interest the report that there is a possibility of the Methodist general conference should it come to Indianapolis in 1908, being held at the State house. Gov. Hanly, who is much in favor of Indianapolis securing the conference, has made an inspection of the house chamber with a view to ascertaining how many people could be comfortably seated. The house chamber can be made to accommodate 1,000 people.

While in Indianapolis a few days ago Bishop Berry, one of the notable men of the Methodist church, said Indianapolis probably could have the conference if a suitable place for the delegates to meet could be provided.

TRACTION BEATS THE STEAM LINE

C. H. & D. Double Header No. 35
Passenger Had Half Mile Start
—Drummers Talking

The Connersville News says: "Traveling men were telling their customers today of a race out of Rushville, this morning, in which an I. & C. traction car ran away from a fast train on the C. H. & D. It was said that No. 35 passenger, coming east, pulled by two engines, and half a mile the start of a traction car of which George E. Reese was conductor and James Bailey motorman. The traction car rapidly gained on the flying steam cars and at Griffins Station, six miles out, it had slowed down and came to a dead stop before the passenger train came up and passed. The traveling men telling this say it was the best time they ever saw made on an inter-urban line."

These races are a common thing between this city and Indianapolis, where the roads parallel each other adding much to the interest.

SUPT. HEADLEE FAVORS RILEY FOR HALL OF FAME

Writes Interesting of the Hoosier
Poet—Displays Good Judgment in His Selection

Supt. W. O. Headlee, of this city, in writing to the Indianapolis Star "Hall of Fame" contest says:

"No man has been dearer to the hearts of the people of Indiana than James Whitcomb Riley. This is because he has lived closer to the people and thoroughly represents them in his writings. He is strictly 'Hoosier,' but his fame is national. Indiana has had many distinguished statesmen, but she has had about one poet. The greater, therefore, should be his reward. Long after Harrison, Wallace and others are mentioned only by the histories, whenever there are children and people who love children, the name of Riley will be a household word. Some day we shall all be glad to vote this honor to Albert J. Beveridge, but the present is for James Whitcomb Riley. I cast the vote of four for him."

RESIGNATION OF M'CONNELL ACCEPTED

The Elders of the Presbyterian church met last night and formally accepted the resignation of Rev. T. H. McConnell. The board has not made any arrangements to hear candidates to fill the place made vacant by Rev. McConnell's resignation.

REPENTS AND RETURNS $50

Dorothy Wisdom is "Squaring Things" With Her Former Pupils Here

MONEY IS RETURNED

Some Get Money, Others Get Christmas "Greetings" from the "Fair Dorothy"

Truth is stranger than fiction. The modern problem play or novel and even the "yellow back" or gun powder melodrama must have a triple climax in order to attract attention and to fill the want of the public today. Such is the case of Dorothy Wisdom. (Probably our readers tire of seeing this so "oft"—we tire writing it—but we have another chapter to chronicle before the "bioscope pictures").

Now comes the "fair Dorothy," repentant and sad in heart. (Since her release from the Paris, Illinois, jail, she has written several of her former students here, and to the Smith sisters, Misses Mila and Laura, she enclosed a draft for fifty dollars, in return for the lessons they did not receive after paying their tuition.)

To other student she mailed souvenir post cards, (no, no, not of the Paris bastille) Christmas greetings.

Maybe she is not such a "bad fellow" after all, and meant to do the square thing right along, but circumstances prevented it—but it is hard to convince the recipients of the post cards of that.

THE INDIANA RURAL ROUTES ARE COMPLETE

We Have a "Complete Service" and Carriers Number
Over 2,000

Indiana, according to a bulletin just issued by the postoffice department, is well supplied with rural routes. The number in operation on December 1st, the bulletin says, was 2130, which are divided according to congressional districts as follows: First, 169; Second, 177; Third, 193; Fourth, 182; Fifth, 161; Sixth, 192; Seventh, 36; Eighth, 193; Ninth, 226; Tenth, 175; Eleventh, 165; Twelfth, 164; Thirteenth, 186.

From the practical standpoint Indiana now has a complete rural delivery service. The term "complete service," as employed by the department, does not mean that all rural families in Indiana now have the mail delivered at their doors. In some sections of the State the topography and the condition of the roads preclude the establishment of rural service, but the service, with the exception of readjustments, is about as nearly complete as it ever can be made.

DEATH ENDED LIFE OF STRUGGLE

By Patient Suffering, Mrs. Amanda Dean Proved Refined Metal of Her Soul

In regard to the death of Mrs. Amanda E. Dean, mother of Dr. D. H. Dean, of this city, who died Wednesday at her home in Franklin, Ind., of asthma and pneumonia, the Franklin Republican says:

"December 16th, the deceased had made all arrangements to leave on December 18th in company with her daughter, Miss Ella Dean, to spend the winter in Citronelle, Alabama, when she was stricken with pneumonia.

"Mrs. Amanda Dean, daughter of Judge Hager, was born and reared in Bartholomew county. At the age of eighteen she united with the Flatrock Baptist church. She was for a time a student at Hartsville College, where she made the acquaintance of Jeremiah L. Dean, also a Hartsville student, which acquaintance ripened into marriage in the year 1858. There were born to them six children, the eldest of whom, a daughter, died in early childhood. There survive her three sons, Dr. Hager D. Dean, of Rushville; Hon. Griffith D. Dean, of Marion, Dr. J. H. Dean and two daughters, Frances M. and Ella D., and two grandchildren, Phillis and Janet Dean. There also survive two sisters, Mrs. Frank Pugh and Mrs. David Riley, of St. Louis Crossing.

"Her's was a life of struggle. A victim of disease, the asthma, from early childhood, her family cares, to which her devotion was absolutely unstinted, the years' anxiety for an invalid husband, the responsibilities of educating her children—all these not only tested her strength and patience of spirit, but proved and refined the metal of her soul. The remains will be taken to Columbus Saturday for burial.

COUPONS IN ADS ARE PROHIBITED

Important Ruling Has Been Received at the Local Postoffice

WILL CHANGE THE CLASS

Coupons Make the Matter Third
Class and Higher Postage
Must be Paid

Postmaster McFarlan has just received one of the most important rulings that has been handed down by the postoffice authorities in recent months. It was that of Edwin C. Madden, Third Assistant Postmaster General, in regard to advertising matter as run in the many newspapers and magazines. Local advertisers and merchants attaching small blank coupons to advertisements for use of the companies' patrons will hereafter hereafter be prohibited from using this feature on their ads. The custom has become universal and little tree corner return coupons in advertisements at the present time and have also been used to a considerable extent among the newspapers.

The postoffice authorities claim that when these coupons are attached to advertisements the matter becomes third class instead of second and all papers running such advertisements will be subject to third class rates for transportation. The present second class matter is carried at one cent for two ounces.

The deficit in the postoffice department each year is attributed to second class mail matter, and the postoffice department is trying to eliminate everything that would tend to cause the deficit.

M'CORMICK IS AWARDED $5,015

Superior Judges So Rule Yesterday—Phil Wilk Interested in Suit

The State will pay Patrick H. McCormack $5015, and will pay the costs in a suit he brought against the State claiming $87,000 in connection with a contract for the remodeling of a part of the buildings at the Indiana Reformatory at Jeffersonville. Such was the decision of the Marion Superior Court judges sitting together yesterday. There will have to be a special appropriation by the Legislature at the coming session for the payment of the allowance and the costs. The costs will amount to about $3000.

Phil Wilk, of this city, will share the amount awarded McCormack, as he was interested with him on the contract.

REPRESENTED THE SIXTH DISTRICT

Prof. Scholl on Committee to Nominate Officers for Teachers Association

Prof. J. H. Scholl, of this city, was selected to represent the Sixth district on a committee appointed to nominate new officers for the Teachers' Association, now in session in Indianapolis. It was said last night that the committee would likely recommend the selection of President E. B. Bryan of Franklin College or R. J. Aley, of Indiana University, for president of the association.

HURRYING THEM UP

Mr. Henry Evidently Getting Ready to Push Traction
Line East

The following from the Liberty Express would indicate not only that the route to Liberty is a settled fact, but that Mr. Henry will soon get busy pushing his line east:

"A letter from C. L. Henry, president of the I. & C. Traction company, requests those who are to convey right-of-way to the company in Union county to make up their deeds and leave them in the local banks to be delivered upon a compliance with the terms of the contract between the committee and the landowners. There is need of haste in this matter as Mr. Henry intends to push the work of building the line as fast as possible."

EDITOR KALER SUFFERS BY FIRE

Home is Destroyed at St. Paul
Last Night Losing Entire Household Effects

St. Paul was visited by a fire last night which destroyed the residence occupied by Walter Kaler, editor of the St. Paul Telegram, formerly of this city, totally destroying the building and all contents, with the exception of a folding bed and dresser.

The house is the property of Dr. D. J. Ballard, and is located on Webster street in that city. It is a five room frame structure and valued at $1500, partially covered by insurance.

No one was at the home of Mr. Kaler at the time the fire started. Mrs. Kaler being out of town and Mr. Kaler busy at work at the Telegram office. Gas which was left burning in the kitchen is responsible for the fire, which had gained such headway that there was no hope of saving the building.

Mr. Kaler's loss will amount to several hundred dollars, many valuable books being consumed by the flames.

"BAR" PLACED ON DRUNKEN MEN

Big Four Railroad Company May Refuse to Carry Man Under Influence of Liquor

It is said a movement is on foot by the New York Central lines to refuse to sell tickets to applicants who are under the influence of liquor. As the Big Four lines which operate through this city is controlled by the New York Central, the order is one that will be appreciated by the traveling public, a drunken man has no business on a public conveyance. He is liable at any time to go on a rampage, thereby endangering the life and limb of an innocent party or parties, or may walk off the train while at full speed, causing himself serious injury or death.

It should become a general rule upon all steam roads, electric lines and other public conveyances, to refuse a man who is under the influence of liquor, a ticket at the office, or to enter the cars at any station or other stop. Such a rule will be a great protection to the traveling public and many accidents that are traced directly to drunken men would be avoided.

The I. & C. traction company has an order now in force similar to the one above.

Prof. T. A. Craig is suffering with an attack of tonsillitis.

—Earl Sanders, of Connersville, was here today on his way to Shelbyville, where he will attend a dance tonight.

QUAILS WILL BE IMPORTED

Indiana Nimrods Will Experiment
Shooting at Alabama
Birds Next Year

SHIPMENT HAS ARRIVED

Birds Will be Fed this Winter and Distributed Over the State in Spring

A consignment of 250 quail has been received at the office of the Fish and Game Commission at the State house for distribution in various parts of the State for the purpose of restocking. The birds are from Alabama and were purchased by the League of American Sportsmen. The experiment made last year of importing quail for restocking purposes proved satisfactory and this is the first of several lots of the birds that will be placed in the State this winter. They will be taken to the farms and will be protected and fed. As soon as the severe winter weather is over they will be released.

Where the quail will be placed has not yet been determined. This matter will be in the hands of E. E. Earl, deputy for State Fish and Game Commissioner Z. T. Sweeney, of Columbus.

These birds were paid for by sportsmen and not out of the State funds. There are some people who believe that the Alabama quail are migratory and contend that their importation into this State will not prove successful.

However the sportsmen intend to try the experiment with the two hundred and fifty received a few days ago at the State House, and if it proves satisfactory they will ask State Fish and Game Commissioner Z. T. Sweeney for the importation of more birds from Alabama.

Elder Sweeney has used some of this money for the importation of pheasants and has distributed any number of the birds.

I seems that some people have raised the question whether or not Commissioner Sweeney can use the license money for the importation of quail. The law says that he can use it for the "preservation, protection and propagation of game." The question is, will the importation of quail come in under any one of the three named heads?

WATSON GOT THEIR VIEWS ON TARIFF

Consults With Richmond Manufacturers Yesterday Regarding a Revision of Tariff

A dispatch from Richmond to the Indianapolis Star says: Congressman James E. Watson spent yesterday afternoon and a good part of today in Richmond. He came here primarily to consult Richmond manufacturers in regard to changes which they may desire in the tariff.

During the recent campaign it was used as an argument against re-election of Mr. Watson that he opposed tariff revision. He said at the time that he had received but five letters from his constituents on the subject of tariff, and did not really know that the people of this county were clamoring for revision. It was with the object in view of fully ascertaining their wishes that he came to Richmond at this time.

Yesterday Mr. Watson paid a visit to the Sarr Piano Factory and this morning to the Hoosier Drill Works, besides calling on a number of other factory officials.

—Mr. and Mrs. Omer Williams, of Everton, came to visit Mrs. Mary M. Williams today.

THE GOVERNOR'S CONDITION

Causes Alarm Among His Associates
at the Statehouse.

Indianapolis, Ind., December 28.—Governor Hanly is confined to his home on North Alabama street by a severe cold, and has been instructed by his physician not to leave the house until he gives him permission. The sickness is not of a serious nature, but the governor's associates at the statehouse are considerably alarmed over his condition. They say that he has been terribly weakened by the enormous demand on his strength during the two years he has been in office, and that he is not in shape to resist severe illness of any kind. They have been urging him for some time to take a rest, but he has been so absorbed in getting ready for the coming session of the legislature, which will be the critical test of his administration, that he has turned them aside to continue at his work. The governor has made it a custom to get down to his office before 7:30 each morning and to work late. He has attempted to keep in very close touch with every department of the state, and has given a lot of time to the plans for three or four new state institutions. The nervous strain following the removal of Sherrick and Storms and of the fierce political fight of which he was the center during the campaign is said to have weakened him and to have cut down his flesh until his friends have expressed surprise at his appearance. It is said that the governor contracted a severe cold while shopping for Christmas presents last Saturday. He has been confined to the house since then. He has not quit work, however, as he is doing all he can at home on his message to the legislature, which convenes in two weeks. Party leaders who have heard of the governor's condition are afraid that he may not be able to be at his office during the session unless he takes care of himself and recuperates rapidly during the next two weeks.

It is not unlikely that the meeting of the State Teachers' association will give considerable attention to the proposed high license bill that will be introduced at the next session of the legislature. The teachers are very much in earnest about wanting their salaries raised, and they propose to watch every avenue of revenue to the state and counties to see that they get their share. Some of the teachers have been informed that the proposed $1,000 license would wipe out three-fourths of the salaries and would thereby cut down the school fund derived from retail licenses. The figures along this line are causing the teachers to wonder what attitude they had better take. Those who favor the high license will insist that the law should be framed so that most of the license fee shall be diverted into the school fund.

A bulletin issued by the board of state charities shows that 3,379 hoboes were cared for by various counties this year at a total cost of $5,749.41. Tippecanoe county entertained 602 of them, which was the highest record for any county. Vigo county was second with 469. The average in the other ninety counties was twenty-five. The board says that Tippecanoe and Vigo evidently enjoy a reputation among tramps for hospitality. It also says that it is unfortunate that tramps are received at jails unless arrested, but that it is a fact that many are given lodging over night and the county is charged 40 cents a day for their board by the sheriff. This practice is illegal, and the board shows that it is not so general as it was formerly.

GOVERNMENT WAGES LOW.

H. T. Newcomb Gives Facts of Interest to Wage Earners.

From 1896 to 1904 the average retail cost of the ordinary articles of food used in the United States advanced no less than 17 per cent (16.96, to be more exact)—that is, the purchaser of food for a family had to pay $1.17 in 1904 for the same quantity and quality of food that $1 would purchase in 1896. These are official statistics compiled by the highly skilled experts employed by the federal government, and every housewife knows that they do not overstate the advance. Other necessities of life have advanced in cost with approximately equal rapidity.

Unquestionably wages ought, generally speaking, to have advanced somewhat in proportion to the increase in the cost of living. In private employment this has apparently taken place, the average wages per hour reported by the federal bureau of labor being 17.36 per cent higher in 1904 than in 1896 and the average weekly earnings 18.96 per cent higher. The advances thus represented are spread all over the country; they characterize every private industrial enterprise and have benefited all classes of workmen employed in private undertakings.

How is it with public employment? A few undertakings conducted under public ownership employ labor like that similarly serving private employers in the same communities, and in these cases the public rate of wages has slowly been advanced somewhat in proportion to the advance in the wages privately paid. But where any American government, municipal, state or national, is the sole or by far the largest employer of a particular class of labor the advances to meet increased cost of living have been so few that the ordinary investigator will be unable to discover a single instance.

Throughout the postal service, among the 25,000 clerical employees at Washington, in the customs and internal revenue services there have been no advances in pay to meet the rise in cost of food, clothing and shelter. The pay of letter carriers, for example, remains precisely where it was fixed twenty years ago by an act approved on Jan. 3, 1887.

The largest printing office in the world is that maintained at Washington by the government, and there the federal government employs a large force of intelligent and highly skilled workmen. A change in the basis of payment in 1890 from the piece work to the per hour system prevents comparisons with dates prior to the change, but wages have remained stationary since March 3, 1890, although the official statisticians report that the cost of food has advanced since the rate of wages was fixed by statute fully 12.25 per cent. During the same years the wages of printers in private book publishing or job printing establishments advanced throughout the United States as follows: Compositors, male, 14.67 per cent; compositors, female, 20.30 per cent; press feeders, male, 22.41 per cent; press feeders, female, 21.27 per cent; pressmen, 11.75 per cent.—H. T. Newcomb.

DO YOU OWN A HORSE?

Electric Light Plants Are Like Horses
In Some Respects.

The subject of depreciation is well worthy of the careful consideration of those who are prone to ignore that item in estimating the cost of lights supplied by municipal plants. But as more people own horses than lighting plants it may be helpful to consider depreciation as applied to horses.

You pay $250 for a five-year-old horse. That's original cost. If you borrow the money you must pay interest on it. If you don't borrow it you lose the interest you would get if you didn't buy the horse. Either way it's interest. You feed the horse, and perhaps hire a man to take care of him. That's operating expenses. You get him shod occasionally and call in the veterinarian when he is sick. That's renewals and repairs. After a few years, in spite of the best of care, the horse is no longer capable of doing the required work and is sold for $50, a loss of $200 as compared with the original cost. That's depreciation. If you haven't laid that by year by year out of the horse's earnings, you've got to borrow it to buy a new horse, and you may not find it easy to do so if you haven't repaid the original loan. That's what happens to municipal plants that don't provide an adequate depreciation fund.

Making Peter Pay For Paul.

Whether a public utility be administered by the government itself or by a private corporation, we hold that every person who uses it should be held to pay the cost of the service which he receives and that no man should be compelled by taxation or otherwise to bear any part of his neighbor's expenses for light and power, for telephone service or for transportation of himself or of his goods.

Every proposal that a municipality assume operation of all public utilities and reduce rates to persons using them, regardless of what the service may actually cost, is an attempt to force some men to bear the expenses of others, because where the outlay for operation exceeds earnings the deficit must be made up by taxation, and this we denounce as socialistic and therefore hostile to justice and subversive of democratic government.—Bourke Cockran.

Senator Sorghum In Doubt.
"Do you think that municipal ownership would eliminate graft?"

"I am not quite sure," answered Senator Sorghum, "whether it would eliminate it or simply originate a new kind."—Washington, Star.

SCIENTISTS CLASH

Concentration of Wealth Denounced and Just as Vigorously Defended.

POOR MR. ROCKEFELLER

Though Fond of Oysters He Is Too Poor to Buy Them According to One of His Defenders.

Wide Differences of Opinion Among Scientists on the Subject of Swollen Fortunes.

New York, Dec. 28.—The concentration of wealth in the hands of comparatively few persons was vigorously denounced and just as earnestly defended at the session of the fifty-seventh annual meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

In a paper on "The Concentration of Wealth," Henry Laurens Call of Washington, D. C., attacked the right of John D. Rockefeller to his fortune on the grounds that, he asserted, it was not the result of natural causes, but had been created through the activity of corporations which the speaker termed "vicious."

During a subsequent discussion of "The Evolution of Property," Louis G. McPherson, assistant to the late Samuel Spencer as president of the Southern railway, took occasion to reply to Mr. Call. He declared that Mr. Rockefeller had had his financial struggles and had done much good which was generally lost sight of in the criticism which came with success. He told of Mr. Rockefeller's early attempt to secure $25,000 with which to construct a pipe line for oil. One man who refused aid met the financier when the pipe line had been laid. To him Mr. Rockefeller said:

"I built that pipe line to make oil cheaper, and I succeeded. I cut the cost more than half. And yet they find fault."

Mr. McPherson then less seriously told of a dinner party several years ago at the Rockefeller home when Mrs. Rockefeller explained the absence of oysters by saying: "We like them, but are too poor to have them." This illustrates Mr. McPherson's point that a man might be worth $100,000,000, and still be short of ready cash if he kept his factories in operation.

NOT HELPING THEIR CASE

Another Member of the Twenty-fifth Infantry Is Very Much Wanted.

El Reno, Okla., Dec. 28.—Race feeling is at white heat and threats of lynching are heard on every hand as a result of an assault committed on Mrs. T. Clifford, wife of a prominent physician, by a negro soldier of the Twenty-fifth Infantry.

Mrs. Clifford and her sister, Mrs. S. H. Clarke, were attempting to pass the soldier when he viciously grabbed Mrs. Clifford around the waist and threw her into the street, exclaiming that the sidewalk belonged to him. Mrs. Clarke screamed for assistance and the assailant fled and escaped before help arrived.

News of the assault spread rapidly and the entire police department, reinforced by several hundred men and boys, searched the town and surrounding country, but the chase was given up. The negro was in uniform and must return to the post or become a deserter. Word was sent to Fort Reno and all absentees noted. Both Mrs. Clifford and her sister are positive they can identify the man and will go to Fort Reno and attempt to pick him from the soldiers who were out of the post when the assault occurred.

Attempt to Wreck Car.

Leavenworth, Kan., Dec. 28.—An attempt was made to wreck a trolley car near Fort Leavenworth. An obstruction placed upon the track was discovered in time to prevent collision. A report that it was the work of negro soldiers who had trouble with a streetcar crew on Monday night is being investigated.

Lodz in Turmoil.

Lodz, Dec. 28.—In view of the lock-out which, according to announcement, will begin in all the principal factories here tomorrow, the Socialists of Lodz are threatening to organize street fights and to compel citizens at the point of the revolver to feed and lodge the unemployed. Many wealthy families already have left the city in fear of disturbances.

Woman Creates Fatal Panic.

Manila, Dec. 28.—The governor of the province of Oriental Negros, has reported that fourteen natives were killed and thirteen wounded in a panic at midnight Christmas mass at Tanjay. A woman was seized with an epileptic fit and cried out for help. This caused a stampede, with the fatal result mentioned.

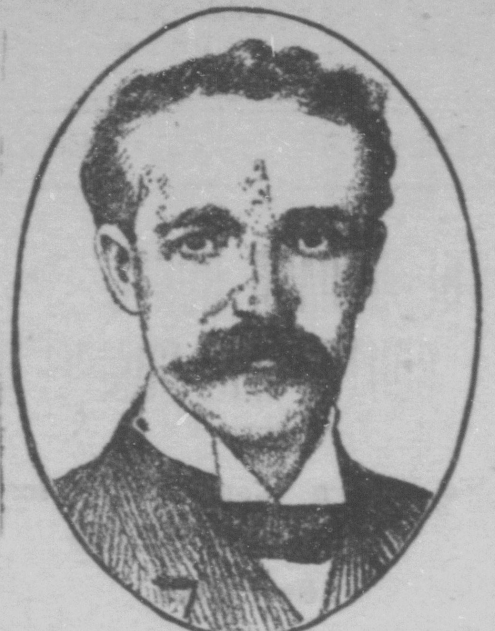

To Check Ore Thefts.

Goldfield, Nev., Dec. 28.—It seems as though the strike would be settled only when the real bone of contention, some practical method of putting a stop to the theft of ore, is agreed upon.

NEW FOREST RESERVE

A Very Wise Provision According to Mr. Pinchot.

Washington, Dec. 28.—Gifford Pinchot, chief of the forestry service, has approved a rough draft of a report to be submitted to the secretary of agriculture relating to the 4,000,000 acres of land in Indian Territory whose withdrawal for forest reserve purposes brought about both an investigation and criticism of the secretaries of the interior and agriculture, by a senate committee.

The report will be a defense of the withdrawal of the land in question located in the Choctaw and Cherokee nations in Indian Territory and will show, first, that the proposed forestry reserve about which so much has been said in criticism, particularly of the secretary of the interior, was asked for primarily by the Indians themselves and other local people; second, that the maintenance of a forest on the proposed area will furnish a much needed continuous supply of timber and wood for local use and also prevent disastrous floods along a thousand miles of the Red river running through Texas, Arkansas and Louisiana, where immense sums of money are now being expended for levees by local people and the government; third, that the forest reserve would not take up all the residue of land after allotments to the Indians. The report will further insist that the secretary of the interior's action in temporarily suspending allotments was not only within his right, but he would have been remiss had he done otherwise.

Belong to the Standard.

Lima, O., Dec. 28.—In one brief typewritten page the three defendant oil companies against which Attorney General Ellis filed ouster suits here recently, made answer acknowledging that the Standard Oil company of New Jersey owned all but five shares of the capital stock of the Buckeye Pipe Line company, the Solar Refining company and the Ohio Oil company. Each company asks that the action be dismissed as to them.

Trouble Thought to Be Over.

Meridian, Miss., Dec. 28.—All the troops stationed at Seaboard, the scene of the recent race troubles, have returned in charge of Governor Vardaman, who went there to take personal command of the situation. The condition there is reported quiet and apprehension of further troubles is passed.

BRYAN IS WILLING

The Nebraskan Admits That He Will Be a Candidate in 1908.

TALKS OF COMMITTEE

Mr. Bryan Still Declares That He Does Not Want Men Like Roger Sullivan at Head of Things.

At Topeka He Practically Admits That He Will Seek the Next Presidential Nomination.

Topeka, Kan., Dec. 28.—In an interview here William J. Bryan practically admitted that he would be a candidate for the presidential nomination before the next Democratic national convention.

"While I have not yet announced that I would be a candidate," said Mr. Bryan, "I have not stated that I would not be a candidate, and do not intend to. Such a high honor as the presidential nomination is something that no American citizen should decline."

Mr. Bryan declared that he had never stated that President Roosevelt had stolen the thunder of the Democratic party, although he said the president was advocating many things favored by that party.

Mr. Bryan said there was no foundation for the story that had been printed to the effect that he would, if nominated, favor the selection of Senator William J. Stone of Missouri as chairman of the Democratic national committee. "I have never told anyone anything about the organization of the national committee," he said. "I do not want to see on the committee men who are not good, clean men who want a government for the people and not for the trusts. I do not care to see men on the committee like Roger Sullivan of Illinois."

In speaking of the railroad legislation enacted by congress at its last session, he stated that he did not believe the legislation was what it should be, but he thinks that the president took what he could get. He said the giving of railroad passes was one of the most corrupting influences exercised in this country.

Mr. Bryan spoke before the Kansas State Teachers' association here last night.

Brownsville, Tex., Dec. 28.—M. D. Purdy, assistant United States attorney general, accompanied by Major Augustus P. Blockson of the inspector general's department, and W. W. Merchler, a confidential law clerk to Secretary of War Taft, besides an official stenographer, arrived here to make an immediate investigation into the facts as to the rioting of negro soldiers here last August. It will probably require several weeks to complete the inquiry. The examination is conducted privately, the witnesses being admitted singly and their sworn statements taken.

HOPE OF TEACHERS

Movement For Better Salaries In High Favor at State Meeting.

LOOK TO LEGISLATURE

The Belief Is General That the Coming General Assembly Will Take Some Action In This Direction.

Report of Educational Commission Was Discussed and Received Much Favorable Comment.

Indianapolis, Dec. 28.—B. F. Moore of Marion, president of the State Teachers' association and also chairman of the commission appointed by Governor Hanly to investigate salary and other legislation at the coming session of the general assembly, declares that he and the other officers of the association are full of encouragement.

"We hear nothing but the most favorable sentiment," he said, "and look for the same sort of action. I have talked with a great number of legislators, and all have expressed themselves in favor of having salaries of teachers increased."

"It is beginning to be understood that the teachers have been late in receiving recognition on this question. While it is true that there has been a slight increase in compensation within the last ten years, it does not compare with the increase in the cost of living."

Mr. Moore retires as president at this session, the custom of the association forbidding the re-election of its officers. Little discussion is heard of possible candidates for his position. Last night thirteen district meetings were held to elect members of the nominating committee, which committee will report nominees for all offices Saturday, when the election will close the work of the gathering. A legislative committee will be elected also, to report on call during the general assembly or any other occasion.

The report of the educational commission was received eagerly. Favorable comment on many of its recommendations was heard. Teachers in many cases were surprised to learn that the failure of the courts to assess and collect fines which would revert to the school fund was in part responsible for their present unsatisfactory salaries, and there was much discussion of this.

Aside from the question of salaries, the report's suggestions as to a transfer law, the handling of state school books by the trade instead of by county superintendents, the recommendation of a uniform course of study for high schools, of county aid to teachers' institutes, and for professional training for teachers, were read with interest. When the teachers had had time to read and digest the report of the commission and had talked it over among themselves, some exhibited dissatisfaction on the ground that it had not been made sufficiently strong on the point of increased salaries, nor definite enough in its demands. The sentiment favoring an increase in the liquor license fee from $100 to $1,000, with the provision that the funds thus obtained go in part or in toto to the school fund, was quite general. The money must not all go to the police fund, according to the expressions of teachers.

BANK SUES FOR $10,000.

Wishes Surety Company to Pay Bond of Defaulting Cashier.

Columbus, Ind., Dec. 28.—After spending an entire day in making up issues, the case of the First National bank of Seymour against Cyrus E. McCready, the defaulting cashier of the bank, and the Federal Union Surety company of Indianapolis, is on trial. The case is being tried by jury before Judge John W. Macey of Winchester, who is acting as special judge in the case. The trial may last two weeks.

McCready was cashier of the Seymour bank and defaulted. He pleaded guilty when captured and taken into court, and is now serving his time in the federal prison. The Federal Union Surety company of Indianapolis was on his bond for $10,000, but refused to make good any of the bank's losses because the company held that the thefts of money were made by McCready before the Federal Union company went on his bond. The attorneys for the surety company will introduce the bank's books in evidence and will examine them for a period of fourteen years.

The case was first filed in Jackson county and was brought here on a change of venue. Oscar H. Montgomery, one of the judges of the Indiana supreme court, is here as a witness in the case.

A DANGEROUS MISTAKE.

Rushville Mothers Should Not Neglect Kidney Weakness in Children.

Most children have weak kidneys. The earliest warning is bed-wetting. Later comes backache, headache, languor.

'Tis a mistake to neglect these troubles. To blame the child for its own distress. Seek to cure the kidneys—Save the child from deadly kidney ills. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys.

Mrs. Charles Petet, of 27 North Vine St., Shelbyville, Ind., says: I was sent to a drug store for Doan's Kidney Pills to give to my little boy, who was afflicted with nocturnal weakness of the kidneys, caused by an attack of scarlet fever. There has been no cessation of the trouble until I gave him this remedy, although we have given him other medicines and prescriptions, which failed to relieve him. Doan's Kidney Pills brought such prompt relief that I highly recommend them for children with weak kidneys.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Company, Buffalo, New York, sole agent for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
